

VISION

Chevalier College is a heart-centred community

The graduate of Chevalier College is an honest, reliable, trustworthy young person of integrity, who is compassionate and proud to be a member of the Chevalier College Community.

Influenced and informed by being part of a heart-centred community, the graduate has a faith perspective, the ability to develop and sustain meaningful relationships and the willingness to contribute to society. They are confident, resilient and independent thinkers who are ready for the next step in their lives.

We believe that Chevalier College is a heart-centred community where...
