Upfront discount

A discount of either 5% (when no sibling discount is also applicable) or 2.5% (when a sibling discount is also applicable) applies to annual tuition fees when the full fee statement is paid in full, and funds are received by the College before the close of business - 18 February 2022.

TVET and Wilderness fees – elective subjects

TVET and Wilderness fees only apply if your child has chosen AND been approved to study these elective subjects. Wilderness is not available to students if fee assistance has been applied to their family fee account. The fee and due date for payment of these additional costs for these elective subjects will be advised in writing to individual families when applicable.

Payment of fees

Fees can be paid upfront or by direct debit payment as follows:

- 44 weekly direct debit payments commencing on the first Friday of Term 1.
- 10 monthly direct debit payments commencing on 15 February and concluding on 15 November (or the next business day if the 15th of any month falls on a weekend or a public holiday).

Building Fund

Information regarding making voluntary, tax-deductible donations to the Building Fund will be made available in January. This is a valuable contribution to the overall revenue required for the development of the College.

For further information, please refer to the Supporting Information for College Fees document, which can be found on the college website under Parent Essentials>Quick Links>Accounts Office.
